

WIDE HORIZONS FOR SPORTS LEADERS IN CAITHNESS

- Develop your skills in leadership, motivation, team work and a range of coaching approaches
- Explore the potential for social enterprise in sport
- Visit a sports social enterprise and learn about different approaches
- Gain an ILM endorsed qualification in leadership (SCQF level 5)

5 DAYS | WICK OR THURSO | STARTS SEPTEMBER 2016

Effective leadership is an important quality for sports leaders to develop. By strengthening the understanding of key leadership concepts, coaches and other volunteers are able to make an even bigger contribution in their communities. This programme is an ideal opportunity for people actively engaged in voluntary or part-time paid roles in sport / leisure, to develop their leadership and entrepreneurial skills and explore the potential of social enterprise in sport.

You will gain insight from expert tutors and speakers as well as other learner experiences. You will also learn how social enterprise might be used to maximise the impact of your work and get the most out of your members and participants. Alongside this, you will get the opportunity to visit a successful sports social enterprise in Bettyhill, and share experiences of how investment can be linked to social impact.

ON THIS PROGRAMME YOU WILL:

- Develop leadership skills, including motivation, communication and team working, to take your organisation forward
- Explore ways social enterprise can be used in sport
- Develop coaching techniques to support volunteers and colleagues
- Share your ideas and experiences with your peers
- Have the opportunity to gain a nationally recognised ILM Award (SCQF Level 5)
- Visit a successful social enterprise
